

the SHEPHERD'S STAFF

"Home again. Home Again, Jiggedy Jog!"

The first day I started at Holy Shepherd, I wore a silver ring around my neck. I realized that by being here I have come "Full circle". I was raised in Applewood, attended Maple Grove and Kullerstrand Elementary schools, Manning Junior High and Wheat Ridge High School. Then I left for college and came back for breaks or visits.

Since I lived in Lakewood, I have lived for at least a year in:

Northfield, Minnesota
Berkeley, California
Schwenksville, Pennsylvania
Aurora, Colorado
Phoenix, Arizona
Albuquerque, New Mexico
Eugene, Oregon
Kailua, Hawaii, and most recently
Dillon, Colorado

In the last three years as an Interim Pastor I have resided in Westminster and Thornton and now Lakewood.

So I am grateful, very grateful, to be serving Holy Shepherd as Head of Staff and Transitional Pastor.

My husband Bryan has recently retired from his psychology practice in Breckenridge. He continues to maintain our house in Dillon but lives with me in a Lakewood apartment. Our daughter Annelise has just moved back from LA and she lives in another apartment in Lakewood. Our oldest daughter, Siri, lives in Loveland, works as a social worker with children in the Greeley schools. My mother, Eleanor, lives in Morningstar Memory Care Apartments nearby, and my brother and sister are in town.

Yes, I am happy to be on familiar turf and yet I am also very much aware of how things are both familiar and strange. We are living in an apartment, filled with newcomers who are excited to be part of the "Colorado Experience". The old neighborhood has a new feel with restaurants and taverns and shops emerging. It's interesting to look with fresh eyes at the things I have taken for granted

To me, these are exciting days to be the church. In a time of growth, people are looking for a new home and a new people to belong to. People are looking for purpose and meaning that life in a faith community has to offer. This is a time to turn in faith to the God we know in Jesus and re-discover what is needed and how this church can serve this place in changing times.

In this time of transition, Holy Shepherd has the opportunity to look again at the tried and true and to consider the ways to be hospitable to the new energy and excitement of the future. We can step out in confidence, trusting in God's guidance and company.

What a marvelous place to be!

GOODIE BOXES

FOR OUR MILITARY FAMILY MEMBERS

Would you like to show our Military family members how much we appreciate what they are doing for us? We sent them Christmas cards but a box from home is welcome at anytime!

On Saturday, May 19th, right after the service, we will be assembling goodie boxes for our Holy Shepherd military family. The box will contain a card, poems and greetings from our Pastors, prayers, jokes, cards, nuts, puzzle books and hard candy. It would be easiest if one person bought everything for assembling. The items for each box will cost $20. A Thrivent Grant will pay for the postage.

Would you be willing to sponsor a Goodie Box for one military Holy Shepherd member? If so, please put a check for $20 in the offering plate and put "Goodie Box for our Military Members" anytime before May 19th.

Please join us on May 19th and help write cards and assemble the boxes. Let's show our military how much we care.

Join us for a five week study on ten of the weirdest stories in the Bible, and what we can learn from them. We will look at 2 stories each week, including the long sermon that turned deadly from Acts 20, the floating axe head from 2 Kings 6, Absalom's really bad hair day in 2 Samuel, Baalam, the talking donkey from the book of Numbers, and more. CAUTION: some stories may contain vivid descriptions of violent acts, sexual references, and inappropriate behavior by juveniles. Yet all of these varied and weird stories present lessons on spiritual matters we can apply to our lives today. This class will be entertaining, and insightful. Free study guides to all who attend.

We invite all women to join us for study, discussion, and prayer time. Contact me for more information.

Dear Friends,
Greetings from Madagascar!

I hope that 2018 is turning into a good year for you all! After some very tumultuous months it feels like we are in the swing of normal, what every that may be in Madagascar. We (the YAGM and I) are preparing to go on retreat next week. That's always a great opportunity to check-in and get a real sense of what is happening in the hearts and minds of these volunteers.

In April, as each April, I come back to the US for a brief visit. I'll be in Chicago to meet next year's volunteers, visit a couple congregations and my family before heading back to Madagascar in May.

Please see enclosed March newsletter, I hope you enjoy it!

MADA MATTERS

"Just keep moving forward" ... a lesson from Madagascar

What I do

I coordinate the YAGM (Young Adults in Global Mission) program of the ELCA in Madagascar. This means programmatic, logistical and pastoral support for 10 volunteers in all corners of this country. I travel a ton to see them and to support the accompaniment part of our church to church work. I am constantly being refined and renewed, learning things about the world and myself while challenging and cultivating my faith.

Storms will come

Ava came with strength and intention. She seemed to come in with destruction on her mind. It's cyclone season in Madagascar and most years at least one significant cyclone hits land, we've still got another month of the season so we'll see what else might come to visit... The winds, the rain, the rising floods and the land slides left their marks through a significant portion of this large island. Driving through the most affected areas in the weeks following the storm left little to the imagination about Ava's intensity and power. It also revealed, with new clarity, the unreliable quality of Madagascar's infrastructure. The picture above shows a bridge that Ava took out and in the background

Ways to support me

As always I thank you for your thoughts, prayers and support. It takes a lot to sustain our work here in Madagascar and around the world. Ways you can help:

- Pray - for me, our work here and for Madagascar
- Communicate - through email and snail mail
- Sponsor - myself or Global ministries in Madagascar at: <https://community.elca.org/Madagascar>

Prayer Requests -

The cyclone season continues for another month, continued prayers for safety and water.

The YAGM and I travel for our Second retreat next week, pray for safe travel, renew, positive conversation and God's presence the new temporary replacement. Yet even with all the set backs of roads in disrepair, transportation routes temporarily closed and significant storm damage to buildings and utilities, life continues and almost without skipping a beat. Though the beat may have slowed down, folks just seem to operate with the persistent faith that some time, some day, ways will be restored, so relax, breathe, be patient and just keep moving forward.

Colleagues and Friends

On March 10, 2015, I arrived here for the first time. So much has happened during these three years. My time in Madagascar has made a profound impact on me and for that I am incredibly grateful. There have been times of struggle that's for sure, challenges from places that I least expected and support from places I couldn't imagine. These women below have been some of my treasured colleagues. They are people with whom you always want to spend more time. They speak directly and with courage, they understand their positions, their power and the challenges that lie ahead of them. They are beautiful, they are strong, they are gifts and they are my friends.
