

Genesis 15:1-6

Abram and his wife Sarai really wanted to have children, but they were getting old and they still didn't have any.

God visited Abram in a dream. "Don't worry," God said. "I am with you always."

Abram argued with God. "But Sarai and I still don't have kids."

"Ah, my dear Abram, come with me." God led Abram outside into the starry night. "Look up and count the stars," God said.

"I can't," Abram said. "There are too many to count!"

God said, "That's how many children, and grandchildren, and great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren, and so on, that you are going to have."

"Wow!" said Abram, his eyes shining in the starlight. "That's amazing!"

"I will keep my promise to you, Abram."

"I trust you, God," Abram said.

Did'Ja Know?

Most scientists think now that there are billions upon billions of stars in the universe!

An artist named Vincent Van Gogh once painted a famous picture called "Starry Night." Here's a copy - color it up!

Wait for a clear night and look in the sky. Count how many stars you can see. Is it even possible? There are so many! God sure promised Abram and Sarai (Abraham and Sarah) a big, big family.

Memory Verse

"Look towards heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them. So shall your descendants be."

- God promised this to Abram
