

2 Samuel 7:1-17

King David loved God with all his heart. He told his prophet, Nathan, "I want to build a big, beautiful house for God to live in."

Nathan said, "Sounds good to me."

But that night, Nathan had a dream.

"Nathan!"

"Is that you, God?"

"Yes," God said. "You need to give David a message for me."

Nathan nodded. "I'm listening."

"Tell him not to build me a house. Instead, I will build David a house."

"Um," said Nathan, "he already has a house. It's really nice."

"Not that kind of house," said God. "My house will be my people, including David's family. I will live in David's family and my people forever."

"I sort of get it," said Nathan. "I'll tell David everything you said." And he did.
