

February 7, 2021

Centurion's Servant
Healed & Raising
Widow's Son

Luke 2:21-38

Jesus and was walking through the land teaching and healing people.

"Excuse me," said a man.

"Can I help you?" asked Jesus.

"Yes. A Roman soldier sent me to ask if you would heal his servant."

Jesus friends frowned. "We don't like the Romans," said Peter. "They're mean to our people!"

"That's true," Jesus said, "but God's love is for everyone. I will go to the Roman's house and heal his servant."

The man shook his head. "He says he isn't good enough for you to come to his house. He knows you can heal his servant from here."

Jesus smiled a big smile. "Wow! This Roman is amazing. He loves his servant so much. He really believes in me."

With that, the Roman soldier's servant was healed.

Miracles of Jesus

Jesus performed miracles because he cared about people and to show God's power worked through him.

Did'ja Know?

When Jesus walked the earth, Romans ruled Palestine, the area where Jesus lived and taught. Many didn't like the Romans, because they wanted to rule everything.

Fill in the letters with colors. Then, write or draw about a time when you needed to trust in something bigger than yourself to get by.

TRUST

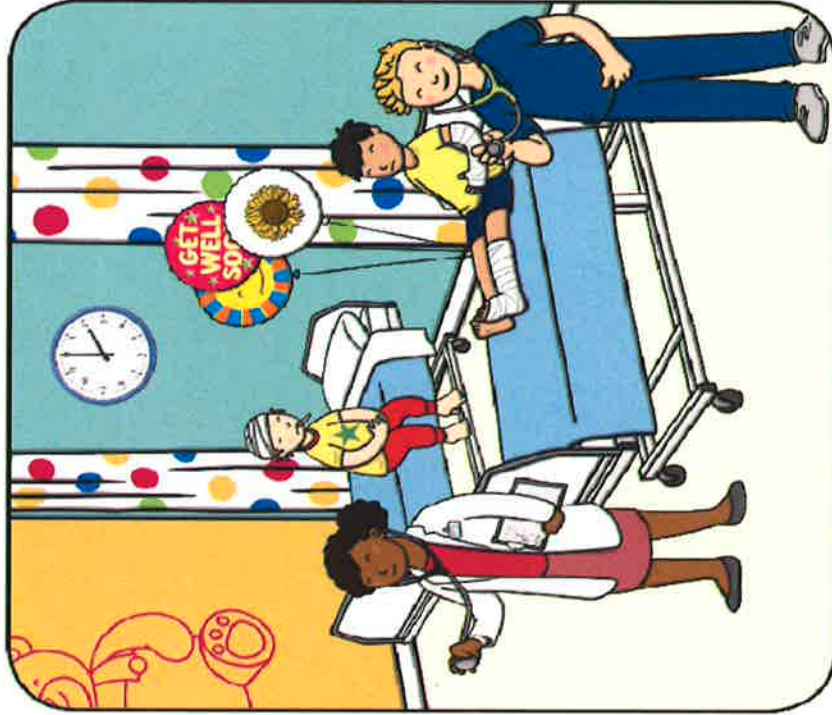

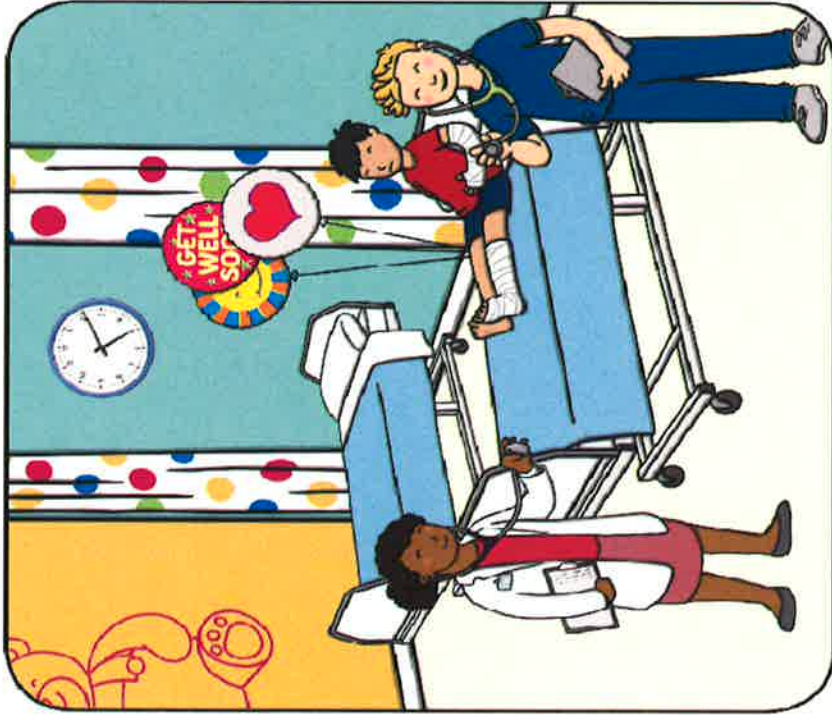

February 7, 2021

Fun Stuff

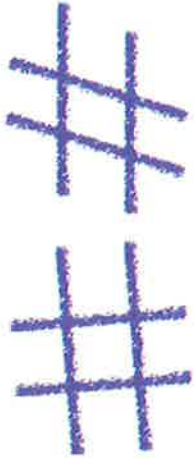

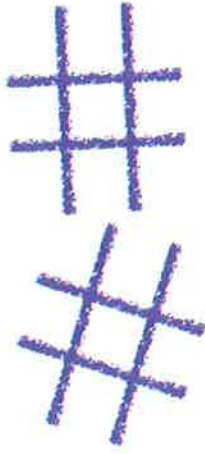

Spot the Differences

Just as Jesus healed sick people, so too do doctors and nurses help heal people who are unwell. Find the 6 differences between these pictures!

TicTAcToe

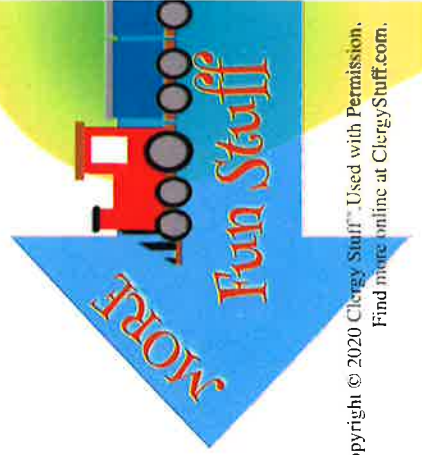

well
Gee
Whiz!

Worldwide, there are over 276,000 hospitals and clinics!

Try it At Home

As a parent or another trusted adult about a time when they needed to trust God to get them through a difficult time.

Copyright © 2020 Clergy Stuff™ Used with Permission.
Find more online at ClergyStuff.com.